Background

The Energy Commission is conducting a public process to consider and ultimately adopt changes to the voluntary energy efficiency provisions in the California Green Building Standards Code (California Code of Regulations (CCR), Title 24, Part 11, also known as CALGreen Tier I and II) to reflect the following goals:

- Newly constructed residential buildings to be Zero Net Energy by 2020.
- Newly constructed nonresidential buildings to be Zero Net Energy by 2030.

- Consistent requirements applicable to additions and alterations for both residential and nonresidential buildings.

Further information regarding the policy goals of the 2016 Standards update are available at www.energy.ca.gov/title24/2016standards/background.html. Additional information prepared by stakeholders is available at www.title24stakeholders.com.

Public Comment

The Energy Commission will be receiving public comments as a part of this workshop. Energy Commission staff will accept oral and written comments under the following guidelines:

Oral comments: Energy Commission staff will accept oral comments during the workshop. Comments may be limited to 5 minutes per speaker to ensure that all interested persons have the opportunity to speak. Those attending in person as well as those attending remotely may make oral comments. Any comments provided will become part of the public record in this proceeding.

Written comments: Energy Commission staff will accept written comments in hard copy or by email. Please submit written comments to the Dockets Unit by 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday, August 5, 2014. Energy Commission staff will accept written comments at the workshop, but may not have time to review them before the conclusion of the workshop. Energy Commission staff will review any such comments following the workshop.

The Energy Commission staff will post submitted comments to the Energy Commission's website for the proceeding. Please note that written and oral comments, attachments, and any associated contact information (e.g. your address, phone, e-mail, etc.) become part of the viewable public record for the proceeding. This information may therefore become available via Google, Yahoo, and other search engines. For additional information, see Standing Order regarding Proceedings and Confidentiality Procedural Requirements for Filing, Service, and Docketing Documents with the Energy Commission, available at: www.energy.ca.gov/commission/chief_counsel/docket.html.

The Energy Commission encourages comments by e-mail. Please include your name and any organization name. Comments should be in a downloadable, searchable format such as Microsoft® Word (.doc) or Adobe® Acrobat® (.pdf). Please include the docket number 14-BSTD-01 and indicate 2016 Building Standards Update in the subject line.
